Discipleship

Hello & Welcome

The Church is not a building. It is a gathering of people brought together to experience God's love and purpose.

God designed the church for YOU – you belong here. Are you ready to experience a community of people doing life together? To find out, come worship with us on Sunday mornings.

Our Mission: To be a loving community of faith dedicated to helping people know Jesus Christ and grow, share and serve as his disciples.

Our Vision: To provide an inviting and welcoming church home that attracts people of all ages and encourages positive growth, while creating an exciting and dynamic approach as disciples of Jesus Christ.

Thank you for worshipping with us! We are happy to welcome you into this household of God.

PASTOR'S LETTER

Discipleship

Pastor Robbie Carnes

What do you want out of Church? What do you hope to gain from a Spiritual Life? In what way does the Bible and Theology affect how you live your life and how you see the world?

I dearly want you to get something good out of our church. I want you to find rest in the love of God, purpose in the life of Christ, and be strengthened by the presence of the Holy Spirit. In short, I want your faith to matter so much that everything about you and around you is transformed.

The Christian Tradition has called the transition from knowing Jesus to having your life sustained by the life of Christ the process of discipleship. Becoming Christians, we join a community of people who have submitted themselves to Jesus and seek to live in Jesus' way.

Discipleship is a personal endeavor, within a community, to be more like Jesus, through the power of the Holy Spirit, in response to God's marvelous love for us. This personal endeavor takes work. Let me tell you a story...

There was a man who lived at the foot of a very tall mountain. This man had worked the third shift at the local GM assembly plant for many years. He went to work as the sun went down and arrived at home in the dark hours of the morning and quickly fell asleep. Because of this schedule he had never seen a sunrise.

It came to pass that his schedule was going to be changed to first shift. He was ready for this new season in his life and arrived at 8am at the plant. His supervisor said to him, "Did you enjoy the sunrise? It was spectacular this morning." Having never seen a sunrise, the man didn't know how to answer, but a strange longing arose in his heart. He suddenly realized that he had been given a wonderful opportunity to witness the sunrise every morning and he vowed to celebrate this miracle the next day.

He was in for a disappointment. He woke the next day and realized that because of the position of the mountain, which his house sat at the foot of, he could never hope to see the sunrise. Being a man of faith, he prayed to God, "Dear God, please remove this mountain, so that I can witness the miracle of your sunrise."

You might think this very foolish, but this man prayed fervently every night for the mountain to be removed. Every morning he faithfully expected to see the mountain moved because in Matthew 17:20 Jesus said that even with a little faith mountains will be moved. Every morning he was disappointed and finally he lamented in prayer, "Lord, why do you ignore me? I want to know your goodness and see your great work in the world. Why haven't you moved this mountain so that I can witness your glory as the sun rises?"

The next day the man found that his prayer had been answered, but not in the way that he supposed. As he got out of his house that next morning, everything was as it had been, his house, the mountain, the sky's early soft colors annealing into the solid tones of the day. Everything was the same except for the shovel that lay at the foot of the mountain.

Discipleship is the long hard work of becoming Christ like. It is a work that we endeavor and that the Holy Spirit accomplishes in us. It is the moment in which we take the shovel into our hands and begin to work at removing the mountains that keep us from seeing God's glory in our lives and the lives of others.

As we discuss Discipleship these next few months, I hope that you can put your hand to the shovel of faith and do some major earth removal. I pray that the obstacles to growing in our faith that COVID presents and the pressures of our society to conform rather than be transformed by Christ, would be steadily removed.

It will not happen automatically or magically, it will take personal effort; effort that many of us have never needed to give before. We need to learn how to use the internet and communication technology well. We need to be much more intentional with our relationships, because we don't just happen to bump into people as much. We need to become more disciplined to read scripture, worship regularly, and serve our neighbor faithfully.

This is the shovel of discipleship that God has placed at the foot of this mountain of COVID/present day politics/social upheaval/anxiety over the future. Will you pick it up with me and explore how the Holy Spirit might change us as we dig into discipleship?

Romans 12:1-2 I appeal to you therefore, brothers and sisters, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is your spiritual worship. 2 Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your minds, so that you may discern what is the will of God—what is good and acceptable and perfect.

SERMON SERIES & DISCUSSION GROUP

DISCIPLESHIP ESSENTIALS, A GUIDE TO BUILDING YOUR LIFE IN CHRIST

When Jesus calls us into a relationship we enter into a relationship of discipleship. Discipleship encompasses the moment of decision when we chose to share life with Jesus and the lifelong process of transformation in which we are transformed into the likeness of Christ by the power of the Holy Spirit. Discipleship is about building a life in Christ, one that is with Jesus and with other believers.

For the next 6 weeks we will be looking at various topics related to Discipleship during our worship services, and referring to the book, 'Discipleship Essentials, a guide to building your life in Christ', by Greg Ogden. Through this series we hope to further integrate God's truth into our lives by taking Scripture seriously. We will seek to develop genuine and authentic relationships with Jesus and each other, creating a faithful community of mutual submission and forbearance.

You are invited to attend a zoom Discussion Group directly after the worship services in September and October. For about 30 minutes we will speak to each other about the sermon topics and questions that are brought up.

More information will follow regarding this and I hope that you might take advantage of this faithful fellowship opportunity.

SIGNS OF NEW LIFE

Pastor Lindsey Carnes

Reset.

Reboot.

Restart.

Recreate.

Restore.

Revive.

Revitalize.

Resuscitate.

Rejuvenate.

Recalibrate.

RESET!

God's creation is being given another opportunity to RESET with this pandemic. This time, we will use our own choice, ingenuity, smartness and intelligence, all that God has given us. We all know there is an end, but there is actually a middle between the beginning (taking our first breath) and the end (taking our last breath.) And, the middle tends to last longer than the beginning or the end.

Let's not waste our middle! We are in the midst of it, so let's focus on getting it right with ourselves and each other. Romans 12:10 "Let love be genuine; hate what is evil, hold fast to what is good; love one another with mutual affection; outdo one another in showing honor." There is a peaceful, beautiful place for all of us moving in the middle.

Jeremiah 29:11 "For surely I know the plans I have for you, says the Lord, plans for your welfare and not for harm, to give you a future with hope."

I'm sure like me you have noticed many families out walking, biking, doing chalk art on the driveway, playing in the creek, and playing ball together. Marriages in which spouses weren't communicating with each other have a chance right now to hit the reset button. Strained family relationships between parents and teenagers have a chance to hit that reset button. Kids who haven't been told by their parents often enough "I love you" have a chance to hear that more frequently these days. Dads who haven't been around enough to pray with their children and tuck them into bed at night can hit that reset button now. What a gift.

There are lots of great RE . . . words, aren't there? What an opportunity for all of us to pause during this season of shutdown, take a deep breath, and bring back to life some things that may have been dead in our lives. What an opportunity to course correct some things that were going down the wrong path. What an opportunity to draw closer to God as he draws closer to us. What an opportunity to serve the people in our neighborhood in some very creative ways.

And the greatest RE word is . . . RESURRECT. God is the author of redeeming, restoring, reviving, and resurrecting what once was dead. Take a long look at the empty tomb. See the graveclothes of Jesus folded and in the corner of the tomb that could not hold him.

What you do TODAY can have a huge impact, even an eternal impact, on someone else's life. Everyone has a story. What story is God writing in your life during this season of opportunity? God gives us all second and third and fourth . . . and numerous chances to hit the Reset button. New life is springing up all around. The resurrection of Jesus from the grave is what empowers us to tackle those things God is calling us to renew. May the Holy Spirit breathe fresh wind into you today!

MISSION & STEWARDSHIP

Theological Education Offering September 20th

The Office of Theological Education is the liaison between congregations, the denomination, the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) seminaries, and the Presbyterian Mission Agency. Our work is designed to nurture and support the importance of informal theological education in congregations and the vital way formal theological education—your seminaries—nourishes the life of worshiping communities. Learn more about your Presbyterian seminaries.

Theological education happens in all sorts of ways in a Christian's life, whenever we ask questions, go to Sunday school and Bible studies, express doubts, inquire with our curiosity, or go to seminary. Theological education is a path of discernment and learning to think about God, who God is, and what it means to live as a beloved creature of God in the world.

In theological education, people engage in conversation and discussion, listen to the insights of others, bounce their ideas off of one another, and generally seek to deepen their understanding of what it means to live with God. Formal theological education – seminary education – exists in order to maintain the training for leadership of a culture of reflection within the church. Those who are formally trained become equipped to nurture and support the informal and more wide-spread examples of theological education that exist throughout our denomination.

In the end, theological education, both formal and informal, is all about growth in our Christian lives, deepening the relationship we have with God and the relationships we have with each other through God, in Christ, by the power of the Holy Spirit.

CHILDREN & FAMILY MINISTRY

A Note from Ms. Tina

Dear Families,

Jesus calls us to love and act responsibly toward one another, and with most schools starting the year virtually due to COVID 19, we continue love and keep one another safe by gathering virtually for worship and Christian Education classes. Please know I am missing you and your children greatly, and have been giving thought to connecting with you in meaningful ways. My heart is with each family's faith walk and spiritual growth, which, I believe, is meant to be a fun and shared experience!

In order to connect with you, remind you how much God loves you, and know that your church is still here, I will be creating and emailing you 1 short video each week; this is in lieu of inundating you with Sunday school curriculum when you already have your hands full with weekly school lessons!! Beginning September 13, these videos are meant to watch as a family, learning songs, sharing prayers, hearing Bible stories, and suggesting fun activities. Videos will be 10-15 minutes in length.

It is my sincerest hope that these videos enrich your family time, creating ritual and worship in your home. They might supplement your daily prayers before meals or bedtime, reading Scripture or devotions upon waking, or support other ways you seek and share God's love and kindness.

AS always, please reach out to me if I can be of help to you in any way.

In Christ's Love and Service,
Tina Ritchie, Director of Christian Education

Where Do You See Jesus? Similar to the book Flat Stanley who goes on various adventures, we are inviting kids of all ages (including adults) to carry Flat Jesus with you through September 30th. To keep him durable, color the picture, attach the contact paper leaving space for the handle, cut out, and then attach the handle.

Your mission is to look for Jesus's action in the world, take a picture of yourself with Flat Jesus near that action, and post what was happening on your Instagram or Facebook. Please tag Fenton First Presbyterian Church (Facebook) and use the hashtag #flatjesus and #fenton-firstpresbyterianchurch (Instagram).

For every 5 different posts you will be entered into a drawing to receive a $10 gift certificate to The Scoop of Fenton ice cream shop.

On Monday, October 5, ten names will be drawn to receive this prize.

Flat Jesus has been mailed to every household with preschoolers – 12th graders. Adults, you are welcome to join in the fun by picking up a Flat Jesus in the main entryway lobby at church during office hours. Contact tina@ffpc.org with questions. By participating you are highlighting God's shining light in our world! Let's spread the love!!

Mindfulness Exercises for Children

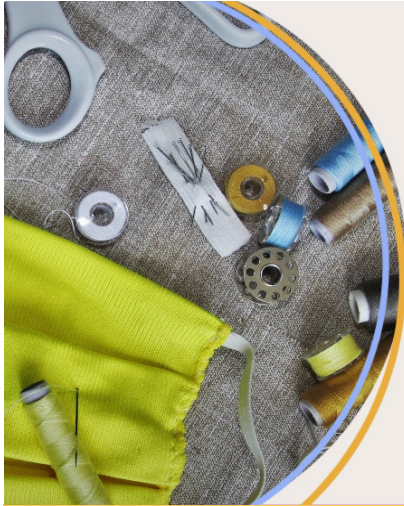

Kids experience negative thoughts and anxiety too, especially in difficult times or when their routines are disrupted. Mindfulness is a great way for us to practice how to be calm and relaxed and learn that our thoughts and emotions don't need to rule our minds. Click the link below for kid-friendly mindfulness exercises to help children learn to breathe and center themselves, especially during times of increased anxiety.

Rebekah Ratza

FFPC Music Director
Organist/Accompanist

Here at FFPC we love music and what music adds to our worship services. Our long time choir director Bruce Neiwenhuis was set to retire just after Easter this year. Due to COVID closures, we're still not able to gather together as an entire congregation to give Bruce a big send off and express our thankfulness for his dedication, talent and ministry. We look forward to being able to celebrate Bruce when we can safely gather again in large groups.

In mid-April our accompanist Benjamin Gittens shared that he was admitted to a doctoral program at Indiana University Bloomington. Benjamin was able to contribute to our worship services through video recordings as we began a search for a new church musician.

The search committee included the pastors, the chair of the Worship Committee Jeff Collier, the Personnel chair Jon Wenzel, Worship Committee member and choir member Peggy Fulcher, choir member and bell choir member Lisa Mehlberg, and an at-large member of the congregation Mark Gibb.

The search committee received many resumes for the combined role of music director, choir director and organist/accompanist. After phone calls, Zoom conference calls, and videos were received, the search committee interviewed 4 candidates in person and unanimously selected one candidate to present to the Session.

We are pleased to introduce our new music director and organist/accompanist Rebekah Ratza. Rebekah has directed and accompanied church choirs and bell choirs, most recently at Faith Presbyterian Church in Novi. Rebekah lives locally here in Fenton, where her husband is a Fenton HS math teacher and they have 2 small children. She loves the organ and we look forward to her making beautiful music with us!

LEADERS NEEDED

The Nominating Committee is looking for FFPC members to serve on the Session and Deacon Board in the upcoming 2021 year. Please contact Elder Jenn Wenzel (jenn720308@gmail.com) if you have a nomination or would like to be considered for leadership.

CALLING ALL TECHIES

The Worship Committee is looking for additional sound and video technicians to help produce worship services and maintain our ability to stream live services. Willingness to learn is all you need to help in this crucial way. Please contact Jay Kirkey for more information (jaykirkey@icloud.com).

WORKING FLAT SCREENS NEEDED

Have you upgraded in the recent past? Have an extra working tv that you no longer need? We are looking for flat screen televisions that can be easily hung on a wall. We are hoping to upgrade the technology within the church to assist us in furthering our ministry. If you have one that you would be willing to donate, please contact the church office at 810-629-7801 or office@ffpc.org. Thank you

WE NEED YOUR HELPING HANDS

If you are willing to:

1) provide rides for small errands such as picking up a few groceries, prescriptions, or Doctor appointments or

2) do simple household chores for those unable to do them for themselves., then WE NEED YOU

You can now sign up on the FFPC website for Helping Hands.

Once you sign up, we can contact you to assist others needing help.

*Those willing to drive a church member somewhere must complete a form and provide a valid driver's license and proof of current auto insurance.
