of the Goodness
of the Lord*

HELLO & WELCOME

The Church is not a building. It is a gathering of people brought together to experience God's love and purpose.

God designed the church for YOU – you belong here. Are you ready to experience a community of people doing life together? To find out, come worship with us on Sunday mornings.

Our Mission: To be a loving community of faith dedicated to helping people know Jesus Christ and grow, share, and serve as his disciples.

Our Vision: To provide an inviting and welcoming church home that attracts people of all ages and encourages positive growth, while creating an exciting and dynamic approach as disciples of Jesus Christ.

Thank you for worshipping with us! We are happy to welcome you into this household of God.

PASTOR'S LETTER

Finding Balance in Rough Waters

Pastor Robbie Carnes

I was listening to a song on the radio. It had just started up and the words began, “In this time of desperation, when all we know is doubt and fear...”

I got to thinking: What a great song for the times that we are in right now. We are in the midst of all sorts of things that seem to be spinning out of control - from wars and rumors of wars, to disease of the body and disease of the mind: from political machinations and efforts that feel like they will take us to the brink. Then I got to thinking again: When was this song written? Was it written for today or some other time of desperation?

The song is called ‘We Believe’ and it was performed by the Newsboys in 2013. That was the year of the Boston Marathon Tragedy, the 16 day government shutdown, and Detroit filing for bankruptcy. While it is the sign of good art when it can transcend time and space, I got to thinking a third time: We are always in a time of desperation.

When is there not a crisis of all categories in our world? One day the financial markets hiccup, the next, violence and racial unrest boil over. We seem to have COVID-19 resolved to a certain extent, and then the profound lack of disease management on the continent of Africa threatens to unleash the viral beast once again.

You could say that I should stop watching the news. You are right, and I do. You could say that this is a product of fear mongering of the news media and the power that social media, TV, and other cultural outlets have in our lives.

You are right, it is. However, just because we are presented with the challenges of this world in a sickly artificial and neurotically compelling way doesn't mean they aren't still problems.

Of course we can ignore it all by turning off the TV and leaving Facebook for a day or two. We can even go on vacation and leave our phones on ‘Do Not Disturb’. But just because we can develop skills and amass resources that give us the ability to ignore most of the challenges of our times doesn't mean that those challenges aren't going to effect our lives—no matter how insular we are.

We are still in a time of desperation. Fact is, we are always in a time of desperation.

Yet we aren't made to live like that. Adrenaline isn't supposed to be constantly flowing through our veins. Our bodies and our minds need rest, but it needs to be real rejuvenating rest, not simply the ceasing of activity. If our times are always desperate then how do we know peace--real peace?

How does Jesus teach us to live in our times? How do we teach others to live in Jesus' way in our times? Scripture gives us some hot tips. In Matthew 14 beginning in verse 22, written in plain simple language, a story is told about Jesus walking on water. The water is rough and waves, urged on by the high winds, are crashing against the sides of the boat. As experienced sailors, the disciples are managing. It wasn't until they saw Jesus walking on the water toward them, through the rough sea and high wind, that they cried out in fear “It’s a ghost!”. Jesus calls out, “Have courage! It is I. Do not be afraid.” And even after Jesus identifies himself, Peter feels the need to test this incredible reality. “Lord if it is you...” order me to walk on the water to where you are. Jesus does and Peter does, and it does turn out exactly like Peter imaged.

This story tells us about Jesus’ power and authority over all things. It tells us how Jesus calls us to join him in scary places and he will not let us drown. But consider this: In that moment, what was Jesus trying to teach his disciples? What was Peter hoping to accomplish by asking to be ordered to get out of the boat? What did the disciples learn that night?

Clearly the intention was to give tools to the disciples to integrate their spiritual world with their physical world. They initially think that Jesus is a ghost because physical bodies cannot walk on water. Jesus Identifies himself, yes, but some transfigured astral projection telling me that I shouldn’t be afraid doesn’t really cut the mustard when the winds are blowing, the doctor’s office is calling, the elections are coming up, wars are raging, injustice abounds, and apathy is the currency of the day.

Peter’s challenge of ‘Lord, if it is you...’ is an expression of the reluctance of our minds and hearts to accept the fact that Jesus transcends the spiritual and physical worlds. Jesus is showing the disciples that he is in control over the physical world and the spiritual world. His actions matter and his words have power, and this results in this altogether incomprehensible thing: Jesus walking on the rough seas. Jesus is also teaching his disciples about living in a world of rough seas and constant anxiety. In order to walk above the chaos we need to live a life that integrates the spiritual and the physical, living in both worlds. It is not that we ignore the waves and the wind; that would be living in a spiritual La-La land and we would have no reason to get out of the boat. That ghost walking out there in the squall is inspiring and descriptive, but I don’t actually have to do anything in order to benefit spiritually. It is also not that we treat the wind and the waves in a completely practical manner. Who in their right mind, with even a modicum of Physical Science knowledge, would jump out of the boat to meet Jesus. Let us invite Jesus into our boat!

It is when we live like Jesus, doing Jesus’ works in Jesus’ way, that we find the restful balance between our spiritual lives and our physical lives. When we take seriously that Jesus is in the thick of it; not a conjecture or a projection, but the real Jesus walking out in the wind and waves of the world, we can confidently take the truth of scripture and work it out practically.

When we find ourselves stepping out of the boat, like Peter, walking toward Jesus, we are pulling the pieces of our spiritual lives and our physical lives together. The results of this is that the waves and the wind are not ceased, nor the risk of us falling into the depths, but that our focus is on Jesus. While we are people of little faith, let us pray that we might grow in truth and knowledge, and not doubt that Jesus is in control and we are in good hands.

Presbyterian missionary red-tagged in the Philippines

(article from The Presbyterian Outlook)

The Rev. Cathy Chang, a mission co-worker serving in the Philippines since 2015, was shocked on April 11 when she found stickers and a tarpaulin with her photo affixed to the front gate of her home with accusations that she is a “Supporter of Terrorist CPP-NPA-NDP” and threatening her to “get out of our country.” She had been red-tagged.

In order to promote a campaign of fear and distrust, red-tagging is a process of blacklisting individuals or organizations not fully supportive of the policies of the sitting government, such as the Anti-Terrorism Act, the War on Drugs, and Covid response, that violate the human rights and civil liberties of the Filipino people.

Chang, along with husband and fellow mission co-worker Juan Lopez, are serving at the invitation of a PC(USA) global partner, the United Church of Christ in the Philippines (UCCP). Under the administration of current Philippine President Rodrigo R. Duterte, the UCCP has been among those that have been vocal against the increasing disregard for human rights in the country. The consequences of such a prophetic action can range from inconvenient to dire.

People who have been red-tagged as “terrorists” have faced false charges. Some have been gunned down on the street or killed while purportedly “resisting arrest.” At the very least, red-tagging, by design, aims to keep people from speaking out against injustice. Even Chang feels pressured to decrease her voice of faith.

They believe that what happens next will be determined [from] the May 9 national election to elect the country’s president and vice-president, senators, members of the House of Representatives, and municipal officials, when 67 million Filipinos [headed] to the polls. Chang and Lopez say the country is divided, just like the street on which they live, which has signs supporting different candidates. Even many of the UCCP churches are divided in the choice of presidential candidates. But on the whole, they are united in their vision of an egalitarian, just and peaceful society.

Chang and Lopez met in 2002 while serving in Egypt as young adults. She was serving with the PC(USA)'s Young Adult Volunteer (YAV) program, and he was serving with Action Chrétienne en Orient (Christians in Action in the East), a mission agency supported by French Protestants. In 2009, she became associate pastor of Memorial Presbyterian Church in Midland, MI, while he continued his career in social work before entering mission service. Chang is a graduate of Princeton Theological Seminary and a member of the Presbytery of Lake Huron.

Pastor Lindsey will be a Commissioner to General Assembly this summer.

Pastor Lindsey has been selected to represent the Presbytery of Lake Huron at our denomination's General Assembly (GA). She's been assigned to the Ecumenical Committee, which will meet June 26-29 in Louisville, KY where our denomination's headquarters are located. This entire GA will be held online via Zoom July 5-9.

Our Presbytery is sending 2 overtures to GA. The first deals with violations of human rights in the Philippines, and Rev. Cathy Chang who is a mission co-worker in the region will be speaking in favor of this overture. The second overture relates to diversity and representation at the Synod level.

You can see past newsletters or sign up to receive an email newsletter about the General Assembly meetings at the bottom of the page at <https://ga-pcusa.org>

Background: Every 2 years our PC(USA) denomination holds a General Assembly to decide on matters that are relevant to our whole church. Every Presbytery (region) elects Commissioners: a minister and an elder to send to the assembly. These Commissioners serve on a committee that reviews and makes recommendations on overtures or amendments to the PC(USA) Book of Order. The following week, the Commissioners will debate and officially vote on these recommendations.

Did You Know... that you can have a beautiful flower arrangement on the alter for just under $13! You pick the Sunday and then take it home after the service. All you have to do is call or email Heidi Roberts at 810-625-4637 or hroberts6862@gmail.com.

Thank you, Tech Team!

A HUGE thank you to our Tech Team! You have gone above and beyond in getting our Sanctuary technology in the up to date, improved, and moved to the balcony! We appreciate all the time, skills, and money you've invested into this endeavor and church.

Thank you also for your week-to-week tech skills each Sunday morning so that we can have our services run as smoothly as possible. We know it's not easy with all the random tech and internet glitches that are out of your control - your problem solving, patience, and commitment help us so much!

THANK YOU, MUSICIANS AND TECH SUPPORT!

Thank you to our wonderful Handbells Choir, Sunday School bell ringers, instrumentalists, soloists, and Chancel Choir for all of your music this past programming year. What a joy it is to serve and glorify the Lord through music! Enjoy your summer break - you've earned it!

Special thank you to Kevin Ratza for all of his help with our music tech needs! We've done it all; recorded, projected, used all sorts of instruments and set-ups, and he's been there any time we have needed! A vast majority of our musical offerings (especially as we navigate COVID) would not have been possible without him!
We appreciate you so much, Kevin!

As a music department, we are striving to focus on God-centered worship, promote healthy behavior and boundaries within our groups, and have humble hearts. We are not performing; we are servicing! Thank you, church, for your support and joining us in song and worship each Sunday (live or via Zoom)! Please continue to pray for our choirs so we might grow spiritually in our ministry here at FFPC and that we are rooted in the Lord, His word, wisdom, health, and love.

Soli Deo Gloria!

- Rebekah

The ministry of Deacons as set forth in scripture is one of compassion, witness, and service. We share in the redeeming love of Jesus Christ for the poor, hungry, sick, lost, friendless, oppressed, those burdened by unjust policies of structure, or anyone else in distress.

Helping Hands If you are shut-in and need some help, think about calling the church. The Deacons' Helping Hands program may be just what you need.

If you need someone to run an errand, pick up groceries or a prescription, maybe we can help. Call the church office at 810-629-7801 and leave your name, contact number and your need. We will always wear a mask and leave any deliveries at your doorstep.

Want to help? If you are willing to:

- 1) provide rides for small errands such as picking up a few groceries, prescriptions, or Doctor appointments or 2) do simple household chores for those unable to do them for themselves, then WE NEED YOU!

You can now sign up on the FFPC website for Helping Hands. Once you sign up, we can contact you to assist others needing help.

*Those willing to drive a church member somewhere must complete a form and provide a valid driver's license and proof of current auto insurance. These forms are available in the church office. We will help you complete the form.

If you have any questions, please contact the church office at 810-629-7801.

Home Meals

The Deacons sponsor a program to make & deliver meals to church families in their time of need. We deliver meals to families/individuals when a member of their family is in the hospital, just coming home to recuperate, or during a very stressful time. If you would like to participate in this program or want more information, please call the church office at 810-629-7801 or Jeanne Cupp.

Deacon's Non-Food Drive

The Deacon's have become aware of a growing need in our community. Did you know that people on certain types of assistance, such as food stamps, can't use it for everyday items like toothpaste, kleenex, toilet paper? To that end, we are starting a non-food drive to collect items. Care products we are collecting are; toilet paper, deodorant, bodywash/soap, shampoo, toothpaste, toothbrush, laundry soap, band aids, antibiotic cream, dish soap, paper towels, and multi purpose cleaners. Bins are available in Fellowship Hall and the church entryway Thank you.

Fenton Farmer's Market Community Outreach Table Volunteer Opportunities

Our church will again have a table at the Farmer's Market for 8 weeks on Thursday evenings July 7 through August 25, from 5-7:30pm (set-up help needed 3:30-4:30). Sponsored by the Christian Education, Mission, and Congregational Outreach committees, each week we will focus on a different organization or community need.

Our main goal continues to be to interact and share our presence within the community by doing the following:

1. Offer activities for families and individuals to engage in mission, music, children, and general family activities
2. Promote various community resources (FARR, Center of Hope, food pantries, etc.)
3. Listen to community/family/individual needs and offer prayer
4. Have fun while providing hospitality

Volunteers are needed for set-up, tear-down, and to interact with the community and weekly activity assistance. Use the Sign-Up Genius link <https://www.signupgenius.com/go/10c0c48aaa62da7fdc61-fenton>, or see the signup sheet on the black bulletin board in Fellowship Hall. Volunteers are also asked to wear a church t-shirt. If you do not have one or have other questions, please contact the office or Tina Ritchie. Thank you for your support and participation!

Sunday School

Children ages kindergarten through 5th grade are invited to join us at 10am in Fellowship Hall

Dear Parents,

The children's classrooms aren't quite ready for us to hold class in them yet, therefore we will continue to hold Sunday school in Fellowship Hall with all children returning to worship for prayers, communion, and benediction. I hope to be back in the classrooms very soon and will keep you posted. Thank you for your understanding!

“The Kingdom Provided” topics are:

Unit 10 – Samuel and King Saul (1 Samuel)

Despite all that God had done for Israel, God's people continued to rebel against God. They demanded a king, going against God's plan and ignoring God's warnings about how a king would rule them. God provided Israel's first king, Saul, to rule God's people. Christ, the final King, rules over all people as Savior.

6/5 Israel's First King

Big Picture Question: Is there anything or anyone greater than God? No, God is greater than everything and everyone.

Unit Key Verse: No one is like you, Lord; you are great, and your name is mighty in power.

~ Jeremiah 10:6 NIV

Unit 11 – Great King David (1 & 2 Samuel, Psalm 23 & 51)

Because of Saul's disobedience, God rejected him as Israel's first king and chose David to be king. Through David's family, God brought forth the last King – the Redeemer Jesus Christ. Jesus is the perfect King who brings peace and salvation to the world.

6/12 David Was Anointed

6/19 David Showed Mercy

6/26 God's Covenant with David

Big Picture Question: How is Jesus the perfect King? Jesus perfectly rules over the universe as the King of kings.

Unit Key Verse: Your kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and your dominion endures through all generations. The Lord is trustworthy in all he promises and faithful in all he does. ~ Psalm 145:13

Biblical Parenting: 10 Tips for Fathers

1. Affirm Your Love
2. Avoid Shaming Your Kids
3. Give Warnings
4. Establish Your Authority
5. Press the Gospel in Deep
6. Urge Your Kids to Imitate You
7. Make it a Team Effort
8. Stay Involved
9. Give Choices
10. Customize Your Approach

Several weeks ago at my church, my eyes were opened to a biblical passage. It is one that I have read many times, but this particular sermon would cause me to view it in a whole new way. What I had previously read as a general reprimand to a wayward church now appeared as a model for parenting. With Father's Day fast approaching, I think this is an important verse for Dad's to study. That passage in question is from 1 Corinthians 4:14-21 and was written by Paul to the church in Corinth.
